Holy Trinity Catholic Church

Celebrating 125 years of Faith
SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; for your unfaithful and tepid priests; for your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for your tempted priests; for your lonely and desolate priests; for your young priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in purgatory. But above all I recommend to you the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptized me; the priest who absolved me from my sins; the priest at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way. Jesus keep them close to Your Heart, and bless them abundantly in time and eternity. Amen.

Thank you visiting priests!

As Lent approaches...there will be a series of short articles concerning Lent: the norms we must follow, spiritual helps, etc... The goal is to hopefully make Lent deeply meaningful! Below is the first article. Please see our website for more information.

Is Lent a Time to Give Up or Increase?

Each Lent the Church invites us to deepen our obedience to and love for God with increased penitential practices. Here, we take our direction from Jesus who spent 40 days and nights in the desert penitential and gave us a model to overcome our weaknesses and temptations. “By the solemn forty days of Lent, the Church unites herself each year to the mystery of Jesus in the desert” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 540). The Catechism states that times like Lent are “particularly appropriate” for “voluntary self-denial such as fasting and almsgiving” (CCC, No. 1438). Penance properly must lead to conversion. An increased prayer life should accompany our penitential practices. That would include more frequent attendance at Mass or reception of the sacrament of penance or increased reading of Sacred Scripture or devotions. —Michael R. Heinlein (editor of Simply Catholic)
