Holy Trinity Catholic Church

Celebrating over 125 years of Faith

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Karri Parson 833-2208, Julie Harris 833-1983,

The Holy Spirit remains active and continues to perform remarkable wonders. In the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples of Jesus are able to perform amazing miracles with the power of the Holy Spirit. Does that still happen? Sometimes when we look at the world around us, we are tempted to think that the Holy Spirit is no longer here.

While it's true that we don't hear about physical healings on a daily basis, countless spiritual miracles do in fact occur if we have the eyes to see. They may not be as striking or "exciting" as those miracles that occurred in the Acts of the Apostles, but they are certainly more enduring.

Let us remember that the Holy Spirit is still with us and can make a profound impact on our own lives and the lives of those we know and love. Spiritual conversions and healings reveal to us the power and love of God and reassure us that he is there, ready to enter our heart and transform us if we would only allow it. By Philip Kosloski on www.aleteia.com

Want to join the Catholic Church? Welcome to RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which people become members of the Roman Catholic Church. Participating in RCIA is much more than going to classes in Catholicism. It's undergoing a conversion to a new way of life in Christ. A faith journey process designed for:

- > Those who have never been baptized.
- > Those baptized in another Christian faith tradition who may be interested in joining the Catholic Church.
- > Catholics who were baptized but never confirmed and/or never received First Communion.

> Anyone who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith. Maybe your children are being raised as Catholics and you want to better understand the faith tradition they are learning or maybe you've attended Church with a Catholic friend and would like to know more. Do you know someone who is interested in joining or learning about our Church? No matter where each one of us is in our faith journey, all are welcome! Please call Deacon Max or the parish office to join the RCIA. Classes will begin in September.

Attaining a personal relationship with Jesus and finding God in all things are just two of the many gifts possible from experiencing the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. The Retreat is led by a trained Spiritual Director and Retreat facilitator. Call with questions or to register until August 15th. Nancy Vargas, 760-4640 or Danna Schweitzer 263-4472.
